VEIOCK ON SPORTS

Forest Hills, L. I., Sept. 2.—Tennis de luxe was on tap here today, as America's leading tennis stars entered the first two matches in the classic challenge round for the historic Davis cup.

The splendid turf courts of the West Side Tennis club, surrounded by stands with accommodations for 14,000 spectators, were to be the scene of two contests in the singles.

William M. Johnston, former national champion and a winning member of the 1920 Davis-cup team, was to be given the honor of opening the challenge round against Ichiya Kumagae, Japan's leading net star. This match was scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

At 4 o'clock, William T. Tilden, II, international turf-court singles champion, and Zenzo Shimidzu, the Nipponese singles champion, were slated to face each other across the net.

The third match of the series of five, best three in five to win, will be played tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock when Richard Norris Williams, II, of Boston, and Watson M. Washburn, of New York, will meet Kumagae and Shimidzu in the doubles.

Monday, the last two singles matches will be played with the order of today's matches reversed, Tilden to meet Kumagae and Johnston to play Shimidzu.

PENNANT IS MORE TO RUTH THAN HOME RUNS

Though He's Going To Get All the Homers He Can,

AND WIN THE FLAG, TOO, BABE DECLARES

Big Circuit Smasher's Chatter About His Trip After Reaching Little Old Town.

[BY BABE RUTH.]

The last long road trip of the season for the Yankees is now a thing of the past and we are home today to meet the Senators. For the next seventy-two hours we will be busy fighting one of the serious battles of the league. Washington right now is not going well. It is in a slump but at the same time there is power in the organization and we must respect it. We must win a great majority of our remaining games with the Eastern clubs before we face the Western teams commencing with the Chicago White Sox on September 13 and 14.

Before we tackle the White Sox we go to Boston and Philadelphia. We are counting on winning a majority of those games, for we have to do so in order to strengthen our position before the grand battle for the pennant begins.

How will we fare in the drive with the Western enemy? I feel confident that we will beat the West collectively, and I look forward to a sweeping victory over the Cleveland Indians, we face them last, which may be just a touch of fate, but we would rather have it that way. For one thing, meeting the Indians last will prevent any anti-climax. No matter how well we may do with the White Sox, the Browns or Tigers, we will have the champions right before us all the time. It will not be a case of beating them and then stuffing off in our work so that the Tigers, our natural victims, may knock us down. If the race comes down to a case of beating Cleveland, I feel we are already victors.

Better Ball.

I know one thing, that we are going to play better ball at home than the Indians will play on the road. We have twenty-two games at home, while the Indians have only five. They leave Dunn field on September 8 to go on a long trip through the East, where they were beaten six or seven straight on their last trip.

When we were away on our last trip through the West, we played bad baseball in Chicago, and atrocious baseball in St. Louis. I hate a poor loser but when we kick away ball games, then I'm no fit companion for anyone. Our bad playing cost us the series with the White Sox, and bad coaching threw away two runs in St. Louis, giving the Browns an even break where we should have won three out of four. This time at home we are going to be all set and ready for the drive to the wire. There will be no such thing then as bad coaching. Strangely enough, when Charley O'Leary sent Bob Shawkey to the plate and a certain put out in the St. Louis series it was the first mistake the veteran had made since joining the club. He has sent a couple of hundred runners in and in a vast majority of instances his judgment has been correct.

The return of Frank Baker is now problematical. Baker rejoined the club in Washington on Tuesday but he is still limping and his leg is sore to the touch. The injury has worried Baker far more than it has worried the rest of us. We miss Baker, and wish he was in the game, but we are in there fighting. He is out, and wishing to be back in the game. For Mike McNally, I have only the warmest praise. He has played fine baseball at third, and has hit in fine style, missing in only two games out of his first twelve. His fielding has been sensational and he has cut off many a well meant drive. All the more credit to Miller Huggins for having men of Mike's stamp on reserve.

Going to Cop Pennant.

We are going to beat the Western clubs on this stay and we are going to win the pennant because we have the best ball club. Chicago has beaten us, for what reason no one knows, except that we play like Chinese against them and do everything backwards. We will get Faber and Kerr for the two days and expect nothing else. Kid Gleason is certainly in there fighting for every break, but his team does not figure to whip us so consistently.

With the Browns we should do well because we can solve Shocker, and should have beaten him the last time out. We beat Davis, and with Billy Payne off a field where white shirts are our back ground, we will whip him. Detroit, of course, has only won a few games from us all year.

And now for Cleveland, our big rival. Coveleskie had done wonders and is a great pitcher but it is not in the cards for him to keep it up. We beat him the other day and will beat him when we face him. Allen Sothoron has beaten us twice in three starts and has done well with some lucky breaks, and Bob Shawkey spraining an ankle when pitching against him. But he will blow I think at the Polo grounds.

You notice against the Indians that our team stands up and fights its hardest. This statement will stand despite the fact that when Cleveland beats us, it is usually by big scores. As for our infield, Peck and Ward show better than Sewell and Wamby, which is going some, for Sewell is a sweet young ball player.

Mays, Shawkey, Collins and Hoyt outmatch the pitchers of the tribe and if it comes down to hurling we hold the edge. On batting the tribe outranks us as a club, but does not press the wrecking ability.

Regarding my home runs; I'll get them if they pitch to me, but the pennant and a cut in the world series is more tempting than home runs.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Tagging the Bases.

Shawkey and Harper humbled the Senators in a double-header and the Yanks regained first place.

It took twelve innings but the Tigers hammered out a victory over Cleveland, beating Coveleskie.

Rommell's pitching against the Red Sox enabled the A's to win.

The Braves were dropped from third place by the Phillies with Meadows giving but five hits.

The White Sox got ten hits off Van Gilder, but couldn't score a run and the Browns took the pastime.

St. Louis took a hard fall out of the Pirates by winning a double-header. In the first game, Perkins held his own while in the second, Scherbell was invincible, giving up but four hits.

SERIES OF BURGLARIES LAID TO COLORED MAN

Who Is Target for Revolver Shots, but Escapes.

AT ONE PLACE HIS SHOES ARE LEFT OUTSIDE HOUSE

West Siders Lose Something Less Than $50 as Result of Negro's Activities.

A series of burglaries presumably worked by the same man, who is colored, were reported to the police during the early morning hours. The police were able to secure a description of the man and are making a search for him.

At 1:50 o'clock this morning the first call was received from No. 781 west Center street. Here the man raised a window and was part way through when discovered. One of the Italians at the house fired two shots at him, but he managed to get away. The follow had evidently taken off his shoes and these were found just outside the window.

About 3:20 o'clock the officers were again called to No. 1006 west Center street. Entrance was gained to this house by raising a ladder to an upstairs window. This was a colored man without shoes, coat or hat and before he was discovered, he secured $20 in bills and two revolvers. An Italian woman grabbed him, but he managed to break away and make his escape. She was able to furnish a good description of the man.

This morning C. L. Brockelsby, of No. 795 west Center street, reported his home had been entered during the night and about $12 in cash, a watch, some pocket knives and his keys were missing.

CACHE OF 210 FLINT ARROW HEADS FOUND

WHO MAKES DISCOVERY IN MOUND NEAR KENTON

Thinks They Are Placed There by Indians as a Part of Religious Ceremony.

Frederick A. Stengel, of Marion, is the possessor of a collection of 210 flint arrow heads found in an Indian cache on a farm near Kenton last Friday after considerable digging. All are in very good condition, only six of them being broken and these have since been restored. They were gathered by Mr. Stengel.

The theory has been advanced by some that the flints were stored by the Indians with the intent of using them at some future time.

Mr. Stengel, himself, does not place much faith in this line of reasoning, but is of the opinion that the arrow-heads were placed in the cache as part of a religious ceremony or celebration.

Nine-Foot Elevation.

The elevation under which the arrow-heads were found was originally about ten feet high but had been cut down considerably, inasmuch as the farmer who owned the property had plowed over it for the last fourteen years, with the hope of finally leveling it.

The arrow-heads, with the exception of one, are about from two and one-half to three and one-half inches long. The one large arrow-head was nearly six inches long and had a small piece broken from it, which was not found. They were buried, when uncovered, in a circle several layers deep with sides up.

Underneath the find, the excavators discovered ashes, showing that the burial of the flints was probably accompanied with a ceremony of some kind.

This cache is said to be equal in quality to any now on display in the state. It is also said by some that there is sufficient material of this nature now in Marion county to open a museum that would be very complete. The ridge where the cache was found was carefully examined after the find, but no traces were found of any additional deposits.

The Best of Good News for All the Womenfolk of this Community! It Concerns

Marvelous Sale of Beautiful Fall Suits at Great Savings

One Wonderful Group at

$38

Two Large and Wonderful Groups. Hundreds of High Grade Suits. The Most Charming New Autumn Styles. Just Opened Up and Shown for the First Time Tomorrow. Most of Them Luxuriously Fur Trimmed. The Choicest Lot of Fine New Suits Ever Assembled by a Marion Store.

Another Group of Superb Suits at

NEVER before have we made such preparations. Never have we striven so diligently and earnestly to prepare a Sale of Suits—which would prove helpful and of great and positive benefit to the whole Community.

Weeks were spent by our Resident New York buyers in a long and careful search for the best merchandise obtainable. Days were devoted to a close, systematic comparing of qualities and values by our own department buyers.

And finally contracts were placed for large numbers of Suits—to be made up strictly according to exacting standards of style, quality and workmanship.

Following the announcement of this great sale, unquestionably there'll be a host of other Suit Sales—just as there have always been.

Writing an advertisement may be a matter of two or three hours. But just as a swallow doesn't make a summer—neither does an advertisement, however glowingly written, make a real and genuine sale—big and full of helpfulness to the public.

For such a sale must be of slow growth. It can only be the full development of much preparation and work. The offspring of sound ideas and careful planning.

And such a Sale is unmistakable when it does appear.

First of all, it must be a sale of beautiful new merchandise, of unquetioned quality—new, seasonable and desirable.

Second, it must be conspicuous for the unrivalled variety of desirable merchandise provided at the special prices.

And finally, it can be distinguished by the sound bona-fide price advantages which mean so much to folks at all times—and especially now.

A Sale of that description is always bound to stand out by itself.

And this great Suit Sale of ours—scheduled to start tomorrow morning—is just such an outstanding event.

NOW is the time for every woman who wants a new Fall and Winter Suit—to take advantage of a rare opportunity.

So far as prices go—this occasion has brought them down—down to the bottom!

Months from now you'll have to pay as much or more.

Now is the time to buy one's new Autumn Suit—to derive the greatest measure of pleasure and satisfaction.

It's at the start of a season that one experiences the keenest enjoyment in donning the new fashions.

This remarkable Sale of Suits is both timely and remarkable.

Everything about it is what you, the customer, would desire it to be. After it is over—the greatest opportunity of the Fall and Winter Season will have passed.

At $38 and $50 These Handsome New Suits Fully Restore to Your Dollars Their Old Time Purchasing Power

Yes, without a question this occasion restores one's dollars to virtually 100 cents—in comparison with the values of 1914-15. And compared with even the best of good values today, your dollar's purchasing power soars far above the 100-cent mark.

Take the remarkable suits in the group for instance! A year ago suits at all comparable in appearance and quality, had to be sold around $100.

But let us all forget last year. What you want to know is: "How unusual are the values today?"

Just this! You'll not find it possible to locate other Suits of similar quality within from $10 to $25 of the two special prices at which we feature these.

We don't quote comparative prices to confuse folks. We don't need to on such remarkable merchandise.

The minute you look—you'll see that the value giving is simply incomparable.

This event represents the offering of the choicest, finest new Fall Suits at prices brought down to a point as low as any store can possibly quote and still continue in business to tell the story.

Some of the Charming Suits in the Wonderful $38 Group Are Illustrated in this Ad. Their Descriptions, as follows:

It is seldom that you are among the first to wear the new fashions at such savings.

Here are scores of suits, breathing newness in every line, straight from New York's foremost suit designer—showing rich new fabrics of Duvet, Gerone, Alonzo, Moussyne and other materials which will lead this season. Their colorings are Malay Brown, Sorento Blue, Marabou, etc.

As these suits are being made ready for this event a model like "D" strikes us with it's attractiveness. It is of Sorento Moussyne, gorgeously trimmed with Beaveret Fur and has elaborate silk fringe around the bottom of the jacket which is almost knee length—at $38.

As this beautiful creation is marked we see one like "J"—fashioned from Navy Tricotine, having chenille fringe around the jacket and on the new peasant sleeve—$38.

All of our Windows Are Devoted to the Display of these Suits

And Here Are Descriptions of a Few of the Scores of Very Fine Exclusive Richly Fur Trimmed Models--Which Are Such Exceptional and Unusual Values at $50

The fabrics, furs and lines—all conspire to make these Suits most lovely.

As to fabrics: here are some new acquaintances we make this Fall:

Panvelaine, Veldyne, Moussetyne, Moussyne. These closely resemble wool velvet with a surface as soft as suede.

As to furs: There are collars, cuffs, borders and pockets of real Squirrel, Scotch Mole, Beaver and Real Blue Wolf.

As to lines: There lengths are neither restricted to being short or long. They come the right length when they're the most becoming to the wearer.

One pretty suit, the jacket of which is medium length is Beaver Goldtone. It's pointed peplum is of beautiful Beaveret Fur, it is cleverly draped on the sides by silk tassels. Hand embroidering on the back and front lend more to it's beauty—$50.

FALL AND WINTER OXFORDS FOR LADIES

LAST YEAR THE PRICE RANGE WAS $5.95 TO $12

An honest effort by the shoe industry has made this lower price possible, in spite of the fact that shoe factory and tannery labor and overhead has seen no reduction.

The only reduction in the cost to make a shoe today is in the cost of the raw hides and the cost of the untanned leather is less than 25% of the cost of the finished shoe.

SOCIETY

The True Friendship club met with Mrs. Hershel King, of Woodrow avenue, Thursday afternoon. The house was attractively decorated with cosmos and fall roses and the time was passed with music and contests. The honors went to Mrs. Ernest Phillians and Mrs. Earl Ash.

Mrs. Lloyd Augenstine, of Blaine avenue, entertained the members of the G. W. club at her home, Thursday afternoon. The time was passed with crochet work and music. In a contest the honors went to Mrs. Edward Price and Mrs. Curtis Laudner. Mrs. Laudner and Mrs. Rad Lodwig and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, were guests.

CHURCH SOCIETY

An Interesting Meeting.

Mrs. W. B. Everett, of Buffalo, a former president of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Epworth M. E. church, gave an interesting talk on welfare work in which she had been interested in Buffalo, at the meeting of the society, held in the church parlors Thursday afternoon.

The principal part of the program consisted of a playlet given by Mrs. Frank Siffritt and Mrs. W. H. Hinklin. The object of the playlet was to give the members a better idea of what the society is doing. Mrs. Siffritt took the part of a Russian immigrant mother. She carried a baby and was dressed to represent the part. She told how the Russian mother longed to come to this land of opportunity and of her cruel treatment until she reached America. In representing the Russian woman, Mrs. Siffritt said the first kind voice that greeted her was that of the deaconess as Ellis Island.

Mrs. Hinklin, taking the part of the deaconess, told the Russian women about the different homes and schools scattered over America for just such people as she, and then took her in charge and directed her to one of these homes. The playlet gave a vivid portrayal of the work the society is doing for immigrant women who come to this country.

Mrs. Hinklin also told of the settlement homes through the South, among the mountaineers and negro people.

Mrs. Morris Kline and daughter, favored the women with instrumental music, and a social hour followed.

Prospect Street M. E. Aid.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the Prospect Street M. E. church, held its regular monthly business and social meeting in the basement of the church, Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Louise Wanner and Mrs. Mary Schweinfurth acting as hostesses.

The meeting was largely attended by the members as well as many visitors being present. During the afternoon a very nice program was given, one of the features of which was a solo rendered by Miss Adeline Hecker.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Wilhelm, of Mt. Vernon avenue, the first Thursday in October.

Go to Bellefontaine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Daymude and Mrs. Ralph Good, of west Columbia street, and Mrs. R. G. Smallwood, of Avondale avenue, left early this morning for Bellefontaine, where they will attend the West Ohio Methodist conference. Mrs. Daymude is the delegate and Mrs. Good the alternate from the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church.

Salem Aid Society.

A large attendance was present yesterday at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, of the Salem Evangelical church, the affair being conducted at the home of Mrs. Charles Rieger, of north Greenwood street.

Mrs. Frank Esser, Mrs. Edward Rathel and Miss Carolyn Schoechle, of this city, and Miss Oliva Smith, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, were guests.

Trinity Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary society, of Trinity Baptist church, met at the church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. D. Spring, president, took charge of the meeting. The society voted to make regular contributions to the White Cross. Delegates were appointed to attend the quarterly conference at the Emanuel Baptist church here on September 8. The literary program was in charge of Mrs. J. S. Rayl, assisted by Mrs. M. A. Pickering, Mrs. O. E. Russell and Mrs. Milo Lewis. Mrs. G. M. Landis rendered a solo. Rev. George M. Landis and Miss Poland gave short talks.

Rev. Mr. Runnalls Home.

Rev. C. B. Runnalls, rector of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, returned this morning from his vacation in New York City. The regular services will be resumed at the church next Sunday when there will be two celebrations of holy communion at 7:30 and at 10:30 a. m. The rector will preach at the mid-day service.

Two Classes Meet.

The Philathea class and the Baraca class, of Fite Memorial Baptist church, met last night at the home of Charles and Alfred Alexander, north State street. Following the reading of scripture, the treasurer's report was read and accepted. The regular business was transacted and September 13 was set as the date for the wiener and marshmellow roast to be held out in the country.

Calvary Society.

The Woman's Missionary society, of Calvary Evangelical church, held its regular monthly meeting at the church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. W. R. Kellog read a paper and Mrs. T. J. Mills discussed the plans for the coming year. Plans for a rummage sale in the fall and for local relief work were also discussed.

FARM NEAR KIRKPATRICK RAIDED BY DRY AGENTS

Four West Virginians Taken to Bucyrus.

ROBERT J. PENNELL ASSISTS IN RAID

One Man is Found in Corn Shock—Churn Filled with Raisin Jack.

Four men, arrested on a suspicion of making raisin jack at the Dawson farm on the Marion-Crawford county line about a mile northeast of Kirkpatrick, were up for hearing in mayor's court at Bucyrus Thursday afternoon as the result of a double-jointed raid by Crawford county and Bucyrus police officials and with prohibition enforcement officer, R. J. Pennell, of Marion, Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning.

Wednesday evening Inspector Pennell, Sheriff Knappenberger, Deputy Sheriff Ciessler, Chief Trautman and several other officers from Bucyrus went out to the suspected farm but found no one at home. They did find ample evidence of liquor manufacturing but left things undisturbed in the hope of catching the manufacturers with it on a return trip. Thursday morning the party again went out and brought in the four men, one of whom was found by the chief concealed in a corn shock with some of the utensils used in the business. He was considerably under the influence of liquor when found and had not entirely recovered Thursday afternoon.

Butter Churn in It.

Alva Russell, his son, Ernest Russell, his nephew, James A. Allen and one who gave his name as George Knull, were the four brought in to the city jail. The senior Russell was found in the corn shock, the others at or in the neighborhood of the farm house. A butter churn full of raisin mash and another container were brought in as evidence and some of the mash, tested was found to average around four per cent. or better, it is said. Not all the stuff was found at the farm house that had been seen there the day before, some of it having been emptied and the machinery hidden here and there. The four men arrested, it appeared, from testimony Thursday afternoon, had gone into Bucyrus about the time the raiding party went out to their farm and on their return, as one of them explained: "They kind of suspected they had better hide it."

Denial and Admission.

On their hearing before the mayor Thursday afternoon conducted by Prosecutor Chester Meck, the elder Russell and Allen denied having anything to do with the manufacture of the liquor, although they admitted that they drank it "occasionally." Russell said that he and Allen, his nephew, had just returned from their old home in West Virginia, last Sunday, and knew nothing about the raisin jack. The younger Russell and Knull admitted making the liquor, but denied that it was for any other purpose than their own consumption. None of the four would admit they had taken any of the liquor into town for sale. A list of the things used in the manufacture, according to Knull, included raisins, sugar lemons, peaches, corn, elderberries, yeast and even a little water.

Russell said that he brought Allen back with him from West Virginia to cut corn on his farm. He also declared that he had made five trips to West Virginia since May, by Ford, because his wife had been left a legacy of $30,000.

Suffering of a Quarter Century Quickly Relieved by Nerv-Worth

West Virginian Tells Interesting Story.

"I suffered 25 years with stomach trouble and constipation," said L. F. Perrine, Route 2, Clarksburg, W. Va., in a letter written some time ago, and to continue, "I had gas in my stomach, back and side, and my circulation was poor. I got so sleep and was so tired in the morning when I got up as much I went to bed. I became restless and despondent. I had dizziness quite often and great loss of energy, but my food would not digest and I was always full of gas. Since taking Nerv-Worth, my condition is a great deal better in every way. I am feeling good, sleeping fine, my food digests, and the gases are gone. My whole general condition is much improved and I certainly recommend Nerv-Worth to my friends." If it's stomach trouble you have, the above statement proves to you that Nerv-Worth is the medicine you want. Remember if your first bottle is not satisfactory, your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Sold by all leading druggists everywhere.

TEACHERS PICK GAYMAN FOR THEIR PRESIDENT

W. B. Bliss Addresses Opening Session This Afternoon.

HE IS ASSISTANT STATE DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

Departmental Meetings Held Today Under Direction of Various Teachers.

L. E. Gayman, of Caledonia, was elected president of the Marion County Teachers Institute at this afternoon's session.

M. A. Shepard, of Martel, was elected vice president, and Miss Ellen Dutt, of Marion, secretary-treasurer.

W. B. Bliss Talks.

W. B. Bliss, of Columbus, assistant state director of education, gave the only address at this morning's session of the institute. He took for his subject "Silent Reading" and said that the three most important things in the study of silent reading which the teacher should get before her class were drill exercises, eye movements to widen the visual expansion of eye perception and training to decrease vocalization.

Mr. Bliss advised the teacher to give a certain amount of time to the development of silent reading in the class and gave an illustration of how the child could assist himself in the silent reading by the use of a chart to keep account of the number of words read in a limited time.

"Advancement in every profession in life is what the individual can do for himself along the literature of his profession," Mr. Bliss stated. "Progress," he declared, "is what we know about our job and since books are to prove such a factor in our life it behooves us to improve our library."

Mr. Bliss gave as important things in the practice of silent reading, practice in rapid silent reading, decrease of vocalization, training of the perception, purpose of reading and concentration.

Departmental Meetings.

Following the morning recess departmental meetings were held under the direction of Sylvester Larkin, DeEmma Hawley, Haidee C. Gross and W. R. Heistand.

Mr. Bliss addressed the assembly at the afternoon session, after which teachers' meetings were held under the direction of Dr. H. R. McVay, superintendent of the city schools; and W. R. Heistand superintendent of the county schools.

Becoming a Success.

"If you expect to become a success in the profession you have chosen you must use your own ability and the material you have on hand," declared L. C. Dick, of London, superintendent of the schools of Madison county, in his closing address Thursday afternoon. All teachers, Mr. Dick said, had a vision but the vision is too narrow.

"We only see the boy for this year or next when we really should have a vision stretching out twelve or fourteen years through his college life and on to the great position he is to fill in life," the speaker continued.

"Instead of devoting all the time seeing that the boy gives his time to mathematics and science we should see to it that we have a personality which when the boys and girls come in contact with it, it will teach them the things they ought to do," Mr. Dick said.

In closing his address Mr. Dick declared that he "would rather be deemed worthy to be an instructor in education in this great commonwealth of ours than sit back in the days of Rome and be dictator to Nero in that mighty empire."

Talks on Children.

"Children" was the subject discussed by U. L. Light, of Barberton, in addressing the assembly for the last time Thursday afternoon. He declared that people who did not love children have no business teaching school. He compared people who did not love children with a bamboo fish pole and said that children were here to bother folks and that it was a wonderful thing.

"It is children's heritage to have a good time," Mr. Light said and the teacher should make the time in school so good that the children will want to come back."

The speaker presented the child through three of the most important ages of school life, the first of which he characterized as the presentative age, the age from one to six years. "While a child reasons at this age he makes mistakes because he lacks the facts," he said. "However, a mistake can be made at this time by filling the child's mind with too many facts."

The representative period of the child's life is from five to eleven years when the boys could throw the teacher out if he wanted to, Mr. Light said. The speaker represented the last age from the eleventh year on which developed the gang instinct in the boy and social coherency in the girls. This he declared was the cause and effect period when they wanted to know why?" Mr. Light closed his address with an original poem.

LONG STORY IS BACK OF CLASH

comprising the central competitive field, are backing the effort to unionize the West Virginia fields.

Competition Felt.

The operators alleged that the outside capitalists, feeling keenly the competition of the Logan and Mingo fields, are trying to put the West Virginia operations on the same plane as their own—or to unionize them.

For several years, Logan county, controlled by the coal operators, is believed to have been in a position to repel an invasion, not only of mine union organizers, but of big bodies of armed invaders.

The operators have openly declared they will prevent unionization of their fields at any cost. They insist on the privilege of operating their mines as they see fit and without outside interference. It is claimed the union does interfere with the operation of the mines in designating certain rules for work that must be followed and what jobs shall be performed by the various men.

This claim is made not only for the Logan field, but for the non-union Mingo fields. The superintendent of the Sycamore Coal company, near Williamson, told the writer, some time ago, that he could not operate his mine efficiently if it is unionized.

On the other hand is a bulk of claims by the United Mine Workers. They aver that the Logan coal miners desire to be organized and have the advantages said to be offered by the union. The mine union declares that the miners in the Logan and Mingo fields are subjected to an autocratic rule inflicted by coal operators, that they are not permitted the liberty offered American citizens by the constitution and that they have no voice in their own affairs.

The United Mine Workers insist on their right to go into the Logan field and discuss organization with the miners. Their allegation is that when organizers go into the fields of Logan they are assaulted and driven out by the Logan county authorities.

All these statements reflect the background of one of the most deplorable industrial situations in the history of America.

of the opposition to him from the cabinet finance commission

An Amendment.

Geneva, Sept. 2.—France, today, submitted to the league of nations an amendment providing for a permanent committee to report on military, naval and aerial questions. This would be one of the eight committees sanctioned by the treaty of Versailles, Leon Bourgeois, of France, in making the proposal, said:

"We can not decide on anything before Germany has fulfilled her engagements. It is a question, then, of knowing when it is possible for us to continue work."

Russian Relief.

London, Sept. 2.—Dr. Nansen, head of the international relief movement for Russia, advocated today that the league of nations take over complete direction of Russian relief.

Dr. Nansen is consulting with British officials, but was unable to see Premier Lloyd George, because the latter is in Scotland on a vacation.

TROOPS ARE ON THE MOVE TODAY

Gen announcing that the officers of the United States army were now in charge and all peace officers and citizens were ordered to obey the law and also obey the regulations which are to be immediately promulgated by General Bandholtz.

General Bandholtz is now preparing his proclamation of martial law and it is expected to be announced immediately.

Technical Question.

Washington, Sept. 2.—No decision has yet been reached to declare martial law in West Virginia, Secretary of War Weeks announced this afternoon, after a cabinet meeting.

The proclamation of martial law now depends on the recommendations of General Bandholtz, the secretary said.

The secretary indicated that proclamation of martial law may be held up until General Bandholtz asks for it.

A technical question as to the authority of the president to declare martial law is partly responsible for the delay by the administration in proclaiming martial law, it was learned.

Legal experts have advised the administration of a decision of the United States supreme court in overturning a military death sentence approved by the president in the case of ex-parte Milligan, Indiana. In this decision the courts held that "martial rule can never exist where courts are open in the proper and unobstructed exercise of their jurisdiction."

Discussion of this decision is understood to have been brought up before the cabinet today.

Reinforcements.

Cincinnati, Sept. 2.—Two companies of troops from Fort Thomas, Kentucky, are on their way to the West Virginia coal fields to reinforce federal soldiers already there and to arrive. The troops left at 11 o'clock this morning on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad.

Miners Assaulting.

Logan, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Miners are assaulting the Logan border at every point. The fighting is the heaviest since the miners massed for their invasion of Logan county.

A twenty-five-mile half circle around Logan court-house is under terrific machine-gun and rifle fire. The miners have been repeatedly repulsed, but at noon were continuing their efforts to dislodge the Loganites from the ridges and commanding points back of the mountain passes.

Browning automatic rifles and machine guns were rushed to Blair mountain, Crooked creek and Mill creek. More reinforcements arrived this afternoon and are being thrown into the conflict.

The fear of early morning that the miners are making a determined effort to cross the border before the arrival of federal troops is apparently being realized.

It is expected that aeroplanes will be called into combat action and that bombs will be used on the invaders if they break through the lines. That "tear" gas is available in drums close to the front for immediate use if the position of the defenders becomes untenable, is the understanding.

The battle is raging, this afternoon with greater intensity than at any time since the miners massed on the border.

Four miners are officially reported killed in the fighting east of Logan about noon. One was wounded in the Logan force.

Air reconnaissance reports that the miners are moving up to the border from all points in Boone county and that they are planning a heavy attack.

Ordered to Duty.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Only the Nineteenth infantry at Camp Sherman and the Twenty-Sixth infantry at Camp Dix, New Jersey, have been ordered to proceed into West Virginia, it was stated officially at the war department, today.

All troop movements in connection with the West Virginia orders have been made on express orders from Washington and these have not included the dispatching of the Fortieth infantry from Camp Knox, Kentucky, it was stated.

General Harbord estimates that the troops from Camp Sherman should be the first to arrive on the scene and should report to General Bandholtz six hours after entraining.

The telegram upon which the order was issued for the movement of troops to West Virginia was received from General Bandholtz about 2 a. m. It read in part:

"Investigation completed about 10:30 tonight. The invaders have not obeyed president's proclamation. There is no apparent intention to do so. It is therefore recommended that the troops now in readiness be sent to West Virginia without delay."

The rest of the telegram was devoted to directions as to where the troops should be sent. The route of the troops is not divulged by the war department, through fear that railroad lines might be dynamited.

Parsing Fighting.

Logan, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Furious fighting is in progress at Blair mountain and Crooked creek.

Casualties have occurred at both points.

Six prisoners were captured by the Loganites at Blair mountain this morning. Colonel Kubank's latest communique, at 10:30 a. m., said "We are sitting pretty tight. We have a pail full of prisoners. Logan will hold the lines until the federal troops arrive."

Brisk firing was reported all over the western sector, comprising all the territory west of Logan courthouse. Mill and Crooked creek, both the scene of sanguinary battles this morning, are in the western sector.

Colonel Jackson Arnold, former A. E. F. officer, took command of the Blair mountain forces this morning.

Captain Brockus, in command at Ethel, has sent a message that fighting is in progress at the front.

Indications seem to point to a general offensive of the miners on all the sectors. Fear was expressed at headquarters that the "Red Necks" are endeavoring to pass through the lines before the arrival of federal troops.

The miners have been informed that federal troops are expected this afternoon. They apparently are making a strong effort o force the fighting before the odds turn against them.

Holding Lines.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 2.—"We are holding them."

Such was the message received at the governor's office just before noon from the Logan county defenders who are holding positions along a twenty-five mile front against the army of striking miners.

Reports received at the governor's office, today, said that intense fighting was again in progress. The fighting is especially severe in the Mill creek district, near Crooked creek, the reports said.

Fighting is in progress at many points all along the line, the reports to the governor said.

First Uprising.

Williamson, West Virginia, Sept. 2.—The first uprising in Mingo county since the battle opened along the Boone-Logan county line, was reported to Sheriff A. C. Pinson, early today. A number of men had slipped across the Tug river from Kermit into Martin county, Kentucky, and had organized there. The band then recrossed into West Virginia and started in the direction of Logan through Wayne county. Sheriff Pinson has two forces of men out trying to intercept the band.

Sheriff Pinson, today, received an appeal from Sheriff Don Chafin of Logan to send more reinforcements and hurry them up.

Troops Moving.

Camp Dix, N. J., Sept. 2.—The first of three trains bearing the Twenty-Sixth infantry regiment to the trouble zone of West Virginia, left here at 10 a. m., today and the other two trains were to follow at half-hour intervals.

Equipping of the Sixteenth infantry for the field, which was ordered yesterday, was completed at midnight. Passenger and freight cars for the Sixteenth were expected to be delivered this mornig.

The Twenty-Sixth regiment was ordered to report to Brigadier General H. H. Bandholtz at Charleston, West Virginia.

Troops Get Orders.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Federal troops, today, were ordered into West Virginia to dispersse the armed bands of miners who are threatening an invasion of the Mingo county coal rgeions there.

Major General Harbord, chief of staff, announced that he has ordered the Nineteenth infantry from Camp Sherman, Ohio, and the Twenty-Sixth infantry from Camp Dix, New Jersey, to proceed immediately to West Virginia in response to a request from General Bandholtz, representative of the president in West Virginia.

The telegram received from General Bandholtz, early today, declared the armed forces were not indicating any intention to disperse and that the situation appeared to be critical, with immediate need for troops.

Plance on Job.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 2.—With half a dozen bombing and observation machines, which arrived late yesterday from Langley field, circling over Charleston at 7:30 this morning, apparently in tuning-up flights, the capital began to take on a warlike appearance. General H. H. Bandholtz, who will be in command of federal troops upon their arrival, has established headquarters in a local office building.

To Stop All Gaps.

Charleston, Sept. 22.—While no official announcement has been made it is understood that federal troops will be thrown into the disaffected district along the C. & O. Coal river branch, which would have the effect of stopping all gaps through which miners have been going into the district. This would place them in the rear of the miners.

Military authorities here have let it be known that no halfway measures will be used, once troops are here, but that peace will be restored in the shortest time possible and the most effective means to achieve that end will be used.

WEST OHIO CONFERENCE TO MEET NEXT IN DAYTON

Laymen Admission Amendment Deferred Till 1923.

ADOPTS TWO OTHER MINOR AMENDMENTS

Elliott Ditzler, of Marion, Admitted to Conference on Church of God Credentials.

Bellefontaine, O., Sept. 2.—[Special.]—At this morning's session of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. church, Elliott L. Ditzler, who came to Marion from Pennsylvania, some time ago, by recognition of his credentials from the Church of God, was admitted to full membership of the conference.

Three amendments were considered this morning by the conference and two were adopted. The first one adopted provided for the changing of the name quarterly conference to local conference.

The second one adopted provided for a change ratio of representation to the general conference. The third amendment, on which action was deferred, was the admission of laymen to the conference. This amendment was deferred to the conference of 1923.

Will Meet in Dayton.

The 1922 conference will be held in Grace church at Dayton.

Three reports were read from the Hillsboro, Lima and Springfield conferences.

A class, consisting of second-year men, was admitted into full membership this morning at 11 o'clock. This class consisted of William B. Bonham, Charles W. Valtsell, Alvin E. Roots, William F. Diebert and Carol H. Lewis.

Those admitted on recognition of their credentials were Ernest J. Haerr, Elliott L. Ditzler and Ernest Lee Carter.

To General Conference.

Nothing further has been done by the conference in the case of W. W. Kent, of the Ohmer Park M. E. church, in Dayton, who is up before the conference on a charge of conduct unbecoming a minister. The decision of this conference in the matter will not be final, but it will be carried up to the General conference.

The first-year men advanced to the second year work were LeRoy R. Wilkin, Edwin C. Walley, Charles E. Cramer, Neal H. Peterson, Grover C. Diebert, Edwin B. Thomas, Harry F. Lyon, Frank H. Karns, John W. Danford.

Those from the first class reported as being in the seminary at the present time were John A. Potter, Harley Z. Hawker, Donald F. Wagnon, Willis H. Smith, Roy C. Vandegrie, Norman C. Bangham and O. C. Vogue.

Third-Year Men.

The third-year men passed to the fourth year were Joseph W. Wurts, Aden Albertson, George E. Carey, Walter F. Cantol, L. A. Griffith, John C. Stitsell, B. E. Wright, J. Carl Plummer and C. E. Wintringham.

Anniversary Observed.

The anniversary of the board of Sunday-schools was observed at the Thursday afternoon session of the ninth annual West Ohio conference.

The anniversary address was made by Dr. William S. Bovard, who brought forth the following poignant points regarding religious education:

"That the board of Sunday-schools of the Methodist Episcopal church is working towards three great objectives.

First—To create a churchwide conscience on the subject of teaching methods and educational processes, in getting religious truth into the life of men. It is our conviction than only by education can we make Christian ideals dominant in the motives and conduct of men.

Second—We are striving to get the Christian scriptures accepted in all teaching agencies, the home, the school and the church as the teaching material. We are having it put in teaching form. We are urging the church to recognize that the Bible is not a book of magic, but must influence life through being taught.

Religious Education.

Third—Our board is also urging that the total life in the field for religious education. The life is an inseparable unit, we must minister to all of life or we do not serve any of it adequately. We have always known that the intellect was to be taught, we are only recently understanding that the will and emotions are to be trained and controlled. The physical well being of an individual has a religious significance.

With a church majority in teaching and with the scriptures put in suitable form for teaching purposes and with the whole life in religious training we may hope to make real progress in redeeming the world.

Following Dr. Bovard's lecture, Dr. C. W. Savidge made a plea for the Bible in the public schools.

A law which demands that teachers in Pennsylvania shall read at least ten verses of the Bible daily and that the pupils shall learn so many verses also, was put before the Ohio legislature recently, but was defeated in the senate. Mr. Eldredge declared plans were being made to have the law again brought up and that a strenuous effort would be made to have it passed. "I want to make a fight for the Bible," he said. "There are enemies of the Bible who are driving it out of the public schools. I was not afraid of a prohibition fight and I am ready to make a fight for the word of God. Twenty-three states now have the Bible in the public schools.

"The word of God needs to be put out into the field of education. Morals, religion and education are essential to good citizenship. I don't know if we realize what dangerous times we are in. For the past three or four years, in the Methodist and other churches our members in the Sunday-school have been sliding downhill. We are not even keeping pace with the increase in population.

"Lots of our labor for our young people is lost because they have no scripture training. There is something wrong with the way we are dealing with our young people."

WILL PUT QUIETUS ON THIS KIND OF BUSINESS

Police Will Watch for Personal Baseball "Critic."

Members of the Lincoln Park Playground association met Thursday evening with the management of the baseball club for the purpose of adopting some method to stop a few of the unwelcome attendants from uttering personal remarks at the Sunday games. The result has been that some of the best fans had their patience exhausted and have remained away rather than hear some of the utterances of the knockers.

Now the Playground association and baseball managements have decided to cater entirely to the real fans. There is no objection to fans rooting for the visiting team, but personal remarks directed to the local players will not be tolerated and plenty of police officers will be on hand to lead these offenders from the park.

The Fostoria team, which won such a hard battle from Marion earlier in the season, will be here Sunday and for two games on Labor day. The games on Labor Day will be under the auspices of the Central Labor union. The game in the morning will be called at 9:30 o'clock and the afternoon game at 2:30 o'clock.

ROOT DECLINES SEAT IN COURT

Sends Message Touching World Court of Justice.

ADVANCED AGE IN WAY OF ACCEPTANCE

Unconfirmed Rumor That Kaiser Flees from Holland in an Aeroplane.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Elihu Root, former secretary of state, has informed Signor Tomaso Tittoni, former Italian premier and an Italian delegate to the league-of-nations council, that he will be unable to accept nomination as a member of the proposed international court of justice. This statement was made here this afternoon, by Dr. Paulo Rossi, secretary to Signor Tittoni.

Mr. Root informed Signor Tittoni, Dr. Rossi said, that because of his advanced age he did not feel willing to accept the nomination because he would not be assured that he could sit at every session of the court.

Rumor of Flight.

Paris, Sept. 2.—The newspaper, L'Intransigeant, today printed an unconfirmed rumor that the kaiser had escaped from Holland in an aeroplane. According to the newspaper the information was received from Torino, Italy, in a telephone message.

Believed False.

London, Sept. 2.—The Holland and German ministeries, the Daily Express, the London Daily News and the London Telegraph were without any confirmation, tonight, of the report from Paris that the ex-kaiser had escaped from Holland. The report was considered false.

Boy Scouts will hold a bake sale, Miller market, Saturday, September 3rd.—Adv.-1-c.

Mrs. R. B. Price and daughters, Madge and Janet, of Cleveland, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weimer, of Pearl street.

No More Shiny Domes.

After the wonders which we have seen worked for the soldiers who suffered disfigurement during the war, it is not surprising that plastic surgeons are turning their attention to improving civilians also. Ugly noses, projecting ears, harelips and all sorts of other obstacles to good looks will probably be easily corrected in the not-far-away future. The most interesting thing along this line which has been recently discovered is that no one need suffer from baldness any more. By grafting a piece of skin from some part of the head where hair is still growing onto the bald patch, a new covering is said to be insured.

Fiji Fashions.

Mr. R. W. Dalton, in his report of the trade of the Fiji Islands, says: "Shirts are gradually gaining in popularity among the Fijians. All kinds of soft tennis shirts with collar and pocket or collar and two pockets sell freely. These shirts are usually worn for dressy occasions, when the natives are generally clothed in white or cream. There is an increasing demand for khaki shorts and trousers. The shorts are either plain or with buckle knees and are being worn by Fijian men beneath or instead of a loin cloth. There is also a large sale for umbrellas.

Noted Chemist To Visit United States

Sir William J. Pope, D. Sc., F. R. S., K. B. E., President of the Society of Chemical Industry of Great Britain, after meeting for the first time with its Canadian Section at its sessions in Montreal beginning August 29, will come to New York on September 6 to hold a joint session with the American Chemical Society. He is head of the Department of Chemistry, Cambridge University, and was formerly Professor of Chemistry at Manchester University. Through his scientific work the British Government was enabled to enormously increase its production of mustard-gas in the late war in recognition of which he was created a Knight of the British Empire.

Home from Brazil—Henry Barnhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barnhart, of south State street, has returned from a six-weeks trip to Brazil. While gone he stopped at Rio de Janeiro.

Fred F. Spencer Fined—Fred F. Spencer, of west Center street, arrested Thursday on the affidavit of C. H. Ringhart for disorderly conduct, was found guilty in the mayor's court, Thursday afternoon. He was fined $25, the fine being suspended pending good behavior.

Johnson Briefs Filed—Briefs in the case of the State of Ohio against Frank C. Johnson were filed in the common pleas court this morning by Justice, Young & Mouser, representing the defendant. Johnson was fined $1,000 and costs in the mayor's court on a charge of illegally possessing intoxicating liquors.

Cincinnati Runaway Caught—Edward Gavin, aged eighteen years, a runaway from his home in Cincinnati, was taken in custody by the Erie police at the union station, Thursday night. The Erie police sent word to the boys father and he requested that the boy be held and he would come for him today.

Arthur Grabe Held—Arthur Grabe giving his home as New York City, was arrested by an officer of the Erie about midnight and is being held on an investigation charge. Grabe was found in a merchandise car on which the seal had been broken, but this morning it was not known if anything was missing from the car.

Blasting at Night—About 12:45 o'clock this morning many residents of the city were awakened by what seemed to be nearby shots or explosions, and some guesses as to the cause led to several wild stories being afloat. The police made an investigation as to the cause and found that a night force of workmen was doing some blasting at the Evans quarries.

$30,000 Realty Deal—S. E. Brets, of Nevada, has traded his farm of 106 acres, six miles north of Marion, to Noah Cull, of Grand avenue. The consideration was about $30,000 taking in three city properities, one on Grand avenue, one one on Senate street, and another on Cherry street. The deal was made through the Collins Real Estate agency, No. 122 1-2 south Main street.

J. H. McPeck Dismissed—J. H. McPeck, brought back from Bellefontaine, Thursday evening, to answer an affidavit filed against him by E. E. Hamilton and R. G. Warner charging him with receiving and concealing a stolen Buick automobile, was dismissed and the affidavit withdrawn when it was discovered that his arrest was the result of mistaken identity.

Sextet Is Arrested—Six young fellows were arrested by the local police, Thursday evening, on charges of investigation. The young men reside in the northwest section of the city and have been hanging out near the Hocking Valley tracks on Silver street. This morning the mayor arraigned the fellows and after ordering the crowd broken up and to be careful of their actions in the future, they were dismissed.

Uniform Pythian Camp—Marion Company, No. 15, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, met Thursday night with a large attendance. Arrangements were completed for attending the regimental camp to be held just west of Bucyrus from Saturday until Monday evening. The first detachment will leave Marion Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock. The companies from Fostoria, Kenton, Marion, Bucyrus, Caroy, Shelby and Mansfield will be in attendance.

Another Check Worker—Another scheme of passing forged checks was worked in the city today, and before noon the local police had trace of five forged checks while other victims were expected. The forger worked the scheme the same on all his victims and apparently confined his work to the grocers. The grocers who reported being victims lost various amounts according to the bill purchased by the man. The checks were on the Marion County bank in the denomination of $12.50 and mde payable to Harold Williams on the account of R. Williams. The fellow would purchase a small bit of goods and request it delivered to some address. He would then tender the check in payment and receive the change. In each case the driver was unable to locate the address for the goods and this led to the discovery that the checks were forgeries.

Barn Burned at Richwood.

Richwood, O., Sept. 2.—[Special.]—A barn in the north part of town belonging to Mrs. Sarah Phinney, of Marion, and used by Lewis Hatcher, was destroyed by fire about 6 o'clock this morning together with some hay, grain, tools and a Reo truck. The origin of the fire is not known.

A threshers' meeting was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seiter, near Green Camp. There were about twenty-five present and the time was passed socially and a melon supper enjoyed.

SHE ATTEMPTS TO PASS CAR AND SPILL FOLLOWS

Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huggins Badly Hurt.

ROAD HOG SAID TO BE TO BLAME FOR ACCIDENT

Child Is Under Overturned Car and Suffers Internal Injuries. Other Car Doesn't Stop.

The four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huggins, of west Fairground street, was hurt internally and received bruises on the chin and right arm this morning about 10 o'clock, when the automobile in which he was riding went over an embankment on the Big Island pike, near Big Island.

The child and his mother and two sisters were going west on the pike. At a point where there was a slight down grade, Mrs. Huggins went to pass a car ahead of her. She tooted the horn, but the person in the other car did not give any of the road and in attempting to pass, Mrs. Huggins turned out a little too far and the car upset and turned over into a deep ditch.

All were thrown out and the car fell on the child. It is thought the top of the machine protected from more serious injuries. Mrs. Huggins received a number of bruises but the other occupants escaped injury.

The car Mrs. Huggins attempted to pass did not stop. The family was brought to Marion in another car which passed shortly after the accident and the child was taken to his home.

The automobile was badly damaged.

Victim of Attack.

Youngstown, Sept. 2.—Mrs. Stella Korn, thirty-seven, died this afternoon without regaining consciousness, the victim of an attack by an unknown fiend, Mrs. Korn left home last night presumably to attend church. She was found unconscious by the roadside on South avenue extension, this morning, her body beaten from head to foot.

The employes of the county surveyor's office and members of their families very pleasantly surprised David Underwood, a member of the office force, at his home on south Grand avenue, Thursday evening, in honor of the anniversary of his birth. The evening was passed in various social ways and during the luncheon some talks were made and the host was nicely remembered.

Term in Penitentiary Suspended During Good Behavior.

He claimed he had used his car on county business then put the bill in to reimburse himself.

TOM HIGGINS' GREATEST FIGHT WITH THE INDIANS

Tom Higgins was a noted Illinois ranger during the War of 1812. One morning near Fort Hills the Indians ambushed Tom's company and killed several of them. As they fled to the fort, Higgins stayed behind, vowing that he would get at least one Indian before he retreated. He got his Indian, but just as he was preparing to mount his horse, Ranger Burgess, who was lying on the ground wounded, called out to him: "You won't leave me to the Indians, will you, Tom?"

Higgins stopped and attempted to lift Burgess onto his horse, but the frightened animal jerked the reins from Tom's hand and dashed madly away.

"You'll have to try to crawl to the fort, Burgess," said Tom, "and I will stay behind and keep redskins off."

As Burgess crawled away, Higgins ran in another direction to lead the approaching Indians away from his wounded comrade. In a few minutes he was surrounded by the savages and they wounded him in the leg as he fled into a deep ravine. He was nearing the fort when three Indians rose up before him. One of them fired and the ranger fell, wounded for the second time.

With a wild yell the Indians rushed at him with uplifted tomahawks, but Higgins rose once more and shot one of them dead. The other two then attacked him with spears and tomahawks. Tom defended himself with his knife until he was knocked to the ground by a blow from a tomahawk which cut off one of his ears.

Finally the ranger tore a spear from the grasp of one of the Indians and thrust it through the body of the other. He was pulled to his feet as the savage fell. The surviving warrior retreated toward his ride and Tom, undaunted by his wounds, staggered after him. The unequal combat had been seen by the people in the fort, but they were afraid to come to his assistance until a brave woman, named Mrs. Pursley, cried out: "I will not see such a brave man die!"

She sprang upon a horse and started to Higgins' aid. Shamed by her example, several men galloped after her. They reached the ranger just as a large party of Indians were ready to sweep down upon him. They threw Higgins, fainting from loss of blood, across a horse and carried him back to the fort in safety.

Higgins did not recover from his wounds for many years, but in his old age he was given a pension for his heroic act and was made a doorkeeper in the state assembly at Vandalia.
